Welcome!!!

The Florida Collegiate Pride Conference is an annual conference that brings together students of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, and heterosexual ally communities from the State of Florida.

Leadership Banquet

Saturday Evening In Ballroom

We will be reaching out to student leaders from other universities, and extending invites to the leaders of those campuses. Banquet tickets will be restricted, but the rest of the conference remains open to everyone!

Conference Overview

During the three days of the conference, students will engage in a series of workshops focusing primarily on the issues and concerns evident in the GLBTQA community. They will learn to understand and accept differences, learn methods of achieving equality, and be motivated by others to make the world a more positive place.

evening entertainment will also be provide.

Medical, Legal, Sexual, Cultural, Media, Environmental, Governmental, Civil, Transgender, Religious, Social, Drugs, and any issue relevant to the GLTBQA community will be talked about at this Conference.

Workshop Mania!!!

Workshops should be engaging, fun, and informative. Just because something sounds silly does not mean a lessons can not be learned from it. All types of submissions are welcomed.

Submitting A Proposal

This conference is put on by students for students, many licensed professionals will be teaching workshops, but anyone that believes they are a expert or able to deliver a superior quality presentation should submit a workshop proposal at www.FCPC2011.com.
